Many people labor under a heavy weight of guilt and shame. The answer is to be found only in the total provision that God Himself has already provided!

Forgiveness is at the core of religious teaching and activity, and at the root of forgiveness is guilt. The followers of religion seek to obtain forgiveness through some means – concerted effort, confessions, prayers, penance, resolutions, etc.

What the God of Scripture offers is freedom from sins!

In Whom we have redemption through His blood, the freedom from sins, according to the riches of His grace (Ephesians 1:7).

Ultimate freedom from sin is far more than forgiveness or pardon. What Paul taught went well beyond that. The revelation given to him involved justification, which, instead of being rooted in guilt, is rooted in righteousness.
Who was delivered for our off enses, and was raised again for our justification (Romans 4:25).

The judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many off enses to justification (Romans 5:16).

Very few believers understand justification. Justification is not simply being pronounced “forgiven,” “pardoned,” “remitted” or even “innocent”; rather, it is being pronounced “RIGHTEOUS!”

Justification’s Definition

To set forth as righteous (Bullinger).¹

The act of pronouncing righteous (Vine).²

Constituted righteous (Knoch).³

William R. Newell says that Paul’s Gospel included:

The plan of the actual conferring of the gift of righteousness …

The change of a sinner’s standing before God, from one of condemnation to one of righteousness.

Negatively, it is deliverance from guilt on account of Christ’s shed blood, and deliverance out of the old creation, by identification in death with Christ.

Positively, it is a new standing in the risen Christ before God.⁴

The makeup of the English word justification looks like this:

Just – (root) adjective – meaning: right, or righteous.

fy – a suffix used to form a verb – meaning: to make.

tion – a suffix used to form a noun from a verb – meaning: state or condition of being.

Thus, justification is the state or condition of having been made right or righteous.

Paul shockingly proclaims that we have been “made righteous” (Romans 5:19). Even better than that, we have been “made the righteousness of God in Him” (II Corinthians 5:21)! The result of being made righteous is that we are free from the entire realm of sin and law.

Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man (I Timothy 1:9).

4. A tract excerpt taken from Paul vs. Peter (Bible Student’s Press).
Having been made righteous, we can never ever have a judicial charge of offense filed against us.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus ... Who will lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God Who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ Who died, or rather Who is risen again, Who is even at the right hand of God, Who also makes intercession for us (Romans 8:1, 33-34).

Forgiven? or Justified?

Justification is a judicial term of righteousness. Forgiveness is a term of guilt that is pardoned. Thus, it is justification and not forgiveness that gives us ultimate and permanent freedom from condemnation and sin.

Notice in Romans 5 that the solution Paul presents to condemnation is justification, not forgiveness:

Judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses to justification. For if by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they who receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by One, Jesus Christ. Therefore, as by the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of One the free gift came upon all men to justification of life (Romans 5:16-18).

Many believe that the real answer to sin is forgiveness. It is not! The ultimate answer to sin is justification!

Forgiveness demands that one be guilty, while justification actually constitutes one righteous. Because forgiveness is rooted in guilt, it can actually be reversed, as seen in the message given to Israel by our Lord Jesus Christ in His Kingdom of Heaven teachings.

Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, “O you wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt, because you desired me to. Should not you also have had compassion on your fellow-servant, even as I had pity on you?” And his lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. So likewise shall My heavenly Father do also to you, if you from your hearts forgive not everyone his brother their trespasses.

Wow, isn't forgiveness a wonderful thing? Certainly not! What we read here is Christ's pre-death teaching concerning forgiveness. However, God's ultimate solution to sin through the Calvary-work of Christ is not found in forgiveness, but in justification. This is a truth revealed clearly to us in the writings of Paul.

The simple fact is that you can't have it both ways. You can't be forgiven if you are righteous, and you can't be righteous if you are forgiven.

But – Didn’t Paul Teach the Forgiveness of Sins?

No! That’s what religion teaches. Paul taught justification.

Religion focuses on forgiveness because it does not truly understand the magnificent revelation of justification. Forgiveness keeps the one who is forgiven a guilty sinner; while justification gloriously and graciously exalts us to a righteous saint. This has nothing to do with our own acts, but the single act of our Savior at Golgotha.

Christians sadly embrace forgiveness and pardon instead of justification. They even do so when reading the teachings of Paul, because most of our English translations insist on it. The translators did so because they themselves did not understand the transcendent doctrine of justification.

 Forgiveness is not Paul’s teaching. One can’t honestly translate “forgiveness” from his writings. Thus religious leaders of Christendom must impose the doctrine of forgiveness into them. As a result, their translators mistranslated the truth of justification right out of Paul’s writings.

Paul’s Usage of “Forgiveness” in English Translations

The word that ends up being translated “forgiveness” (e.g. King James Version) in Paul’s letters is the Greek word aphesis.

Aphesis

Aphesis is defined as:

- Freedom (Strong).¹
- Setting free (Bullinger).²
- Release from bondage or imprisonment (Thayer).³

Interestingly, even the King James Version translates aphesis as “liberty” in Luke 4:18. Let us now note Paul’s own usage of aphesis.

*Be it known to you therefore, men and brothers, that through this man is preached to you the aphesis [freedom] from sins* (Acts 13:38).

*To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive aphesis [freedom from] sins* (Acts 26:18).

*In Whom we have redemption through His blood, the aphesis [freedom from] sins, according to the riches of His grace* (Ephesians 1:7).

³. Thayer.
In Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the aphesis [freedom from] sins (Colossians 1:14).

Charizomai

Paul uses the Greek word charizomai that also ends up being translated “forgiveness” (e.g. King James Version).

Charizomai is defined as:

To grant as a favor, i.e., gratuitously (Strong).8

To give graciously, give freely, bestow (Thayer).9

To do a person a favor, to be kind, to be gracious (Bullinger).10

To deal graciously (Knoch).11

Interestingly, the root of the Greek word charizomai is charis, which is translated “grace.” Note Paul’s usage of charizomai.

*He Who spared not His Own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also charizomai [graciously give] us all things?* (Romans 8:32).

*Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know charizomai [the things graciously given] to us of God (I Corinthians 2:12).*

*So that contrariwise you ought rather to charizomai [be gracious to] him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow (II Corinthians 2:7).*

*To whom you are charizomai [gracious in] anything, I am also: for if I charizomai [be gracious in] anything, to whom I charizomai [am gracious], for your sakes I am, in the person of Christ (II Corinthians 2:10).*

*For what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? Charizomai [be gracious to] me [for] this wrong (II Corinthians 12:13).*

*For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God charizomai [graciously gave] it to Abraham by promise (Galatians 3:18).*

*Be kind to each another, tenderhearted, charizomai [gracious to] one another, even as God for Christ’s sake has charizomai [been gracious to] you (Ephesians 4:32).*

For unto you charizomai [it is graciously given] in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake (Philippians 1:29).

Wherefore God also has highly exalted Him, and charizomai [graciously given] Him a name which is above every name (Philippians 2:9).

You, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has He quickened together with Him, having charizomai [been gracious to] you in all your trespasses (Colossians 2:13).

Forbearing each other, and charizomai [being gracious to] each other, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ charizomai [was gracious to] you, so also do you (Colossians 2:13).

But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I charizomai [will be graciously given] to you (Philemon 1:22).

THE GRAND ANSWER TO SIN

Paul’s writings are the pinnacle of divine revelation. Through him God reveals the grand answer to sin: justification. This is Father’s gift of grace, through the redemptive work of Christ.

By Him all who believe are justified [declared righteous] from all things, from which you could not be justified [declared righteous] by the law of Moses (Acts 13:39).

Being justified [declared righteous] freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (Romans 3:24).

Therefore we conclude that a man is justified [declared righteous] by faith without the deeds of the law (Romans 3:28).

Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification [declaration of righteousness] (Romans 4:25).

Therefore being justified [declared righteous] by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 5:1).

Being now justified [declared righteous] by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him (Romans 5:9).

Not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification [the declaration of righteousness] (Romans 5:16).

Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of One the free gift came upon all men to justification [the declaration of righteousness] of life (Romans 5:18).
Moreover whom He did predestinate, them He also called: and whom He called, them He also justified [declared righteous]: and whom He justified [declared righteous], them He also glorified (Romans 8:30).

Such were some of you: but you are washed, but you are sanctified, but you are justified [declared righteous] in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God (I Corinthians 6:11).

Knowing that a man is not justified [declared righteous] by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified [declared righteous] by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified [declared righteous] (Galatians 2:16).

That no man is justified [declared righteous] by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, "The just shall live by faith" (Galatian 3:11).

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified [declared righteous] by faith (Galatians 3:24).

That being justified [declared righteous] by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life (Titus 3:7).

The ultimate answer to sin is justification – and you've got it!

Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (Romans 3:24).
