Course 1: God / Unit 5: The Attributes of God/ Lesson 8: God's Mercifulness

by — Mark D. Vogt (with Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.)

Yet God, being rich in mercy, because of His vast love with which He loves us (Ephesians 2:4, CV).

Key Points:

God's mercy is vitally connected with His holiness.....8707
Assuming that God thinks like they do, Religion envisions God showing little or no mercy on the rest of humanity.....8707

God takes great pleasure in being merciful.....8714

Mercy is the quality of compassion or great tenderness toward others and their troubles. This is what God has. He is “of great mercy” (Numbers 14:18, KJV), and His mercy, rooted in His unceasing love, never ends.

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; His mercies never come to an end (Lamentations 3:22, ESV).

Noah Webster, in his 1828 An American Dictionary of the English Language, defined mercy as:

That benevolence, mildness or tenderness of heart which disposes a person to overlook injuries, or to treat an offender better than he deserves; the disposition that tempers justice, and induces an injured person to forgive trespasses and injuries, and to forbear punishment ...

Mercy is a distinguishing attribute of the Supreme Being.

As noted in the previous lesson, God's mercy is vitally connected with His holiness. In fact, as we have seen, mercy is the “beauty of [God's] holiness”

(II Chronicles 20:21).

The tendency is to shortchange God in every aspect concerning Him. Religion demonstrates very little mercy toward those whom they deem unworthy, or non-believers, wishing upon them the wrath of God. Assuming that God thinks like they do, they envision God showing little or no mercy on the rest of humanity.

Yet, we see that mercy is the very backdrop of God's grand plan (Logos), for Paul states in Romans 11:32, God locks up all together in stubbornness, that He should be merciful to all (CV).

Then in Ephesians 2:4 Paul uses the magnificent expression that God is “rich in mercy.”

Tidbits of Truth #70

“Tidbits” is a column dedicated to short comments, thoughts, studies and excerpts.

I suppose that all who do biblical research wish at times that they could set forth fragmentary and unfinished ideas in printed form without people thinking that a final and definitive conclusion has now been chiseled into imperishable granite which shall stand forever as the final word on the subject dealt with. Any such conclusion will be far from correct. — Otis Sellers (1901-1992)

Is Our Lord’s Coming Imminent?

[To: F.K.] Imminent is defined as,

likely to occur at any moment – Random House Dictionary threatening to occur at any moment – Webster’s Revised Unabridged Dictionary

Christendom’s doctrine of the alleged “imminent coming of Christ” teaches that He could come at any moment. Yet, such is not the actual teaching of Scripture. There are frankly many prophetic events that must be fulfilled before His Second Advent to Earth takes place.

While a so-called “imminent return” certainly makes for sensational teaching, with many emotional results, it is just not a current prospect during the time of “the Administration of the Secret.” Nor is His return to Earth prophetically expectant for the time immediately after the resumption of Israel’s prophetic program.

Simply put, once God’s present purpose of “the Dis-

Rightly Dividing Israel’s Prophetic Kingdom – With Special Emphasis on The Overlooked Pre-Millennial Kingdom of the Heavens” (A Comprehensive Compilation)

Editors: Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr., André Sneidar

There are enormous amounts of prophecy that were given to Israel in the Hebrew Scriptures that are yet to be fulfilled. Most believers simply follow some version of Christendom’s eschatology, futilely attempting to force the enormity of Israel’s prophetic scene into a few extremely abridged time periods. From this shallow vantage point, it is believed that more time has passed in God’s ages than remains. This couldn’t be further from the truth. Multiplied millennia remain, more than have yet transpired, for the fulfillment of all of the glorious plans that God has revealed in His Word. Far from being near the “end” of something prophetic, the span of God’s eonian plan is immense, and our placement is early in its timeline. Much more of God’s prophetic program remains than man’s feeble eschatologies allow.

The intention herein is to present an alternative view to the confusing message of the traditional Evangelical concept of prophecy, thus opening the door to a consideration of the idea of a Pre-millennial Kingdom as the fulfillment of many of God’s promises to Israel to have their kingdom in the Earth.

All of the material in this book, taken together, is a wonderful resolution to the confusion of the conventional religious theology that has muddled the minds of sincere Bible students for centuries. While we may live in the Secret Administration, that doesn’t necessarily mean that God’s Word regarding His plans for Israel must be a mystery to us.

“pensation of Grace” is complete, and Israel’s Kingdom prophecies resume, there remain hundreds of prophetic years before the timing of the Second Advent. Let us be leery of Evangelical prophetic teaching; and let us not be ignorant about the actual teaching of Scripture on this vital theme.¹

— Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

The Israel of God

[Edited excerpt:] The name “Israel” occurs about seven hundred times in Scripture and everywhere it means the literal sons of Jacob, whose name became “Israel” ...

“Israelites” is the name of a fleshly people who, though they become spiritual, are always distinguished from all other peoples because they are the sons of Jacob.

For centuries Christendom has been taught to consider itself a [so-called] spiritual Israel, and has misappropriated all of the glorious things promised to the real Israel. ... The effort to make the prophecies concerning Israel fit the church has resulted in the practical denial of a very large part of Scripture.

1. For more information on this important theme, see:

- Seven Things I Misunderstood About Prophecy \(An Exposé of Evangelical Prophetic Interpretation\), Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr., Bible Student’s Press (on the order form under “Clyde Pilkington”).
- Rightly Dividing Israel’s Prophetic Kingdom – With Special Emphasis on The Overlooked Pre-Millennial “Kingdom of the Heavens” \(A Comprehensive Compilation\), editors: Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr., André Sneidar, Bible Student’s Press (on the order form under “Compilations”).

“Israel” is a national and racial name, a title of religious aristocracy which gentiles may not use. It expresses the spiritual prerogatives of the chosen nation. Those “who are Israelites” are identified and defined by the three relative clauses following:

whose is ... whose are ... and out of whom is ...
[Romans 9:4-5].

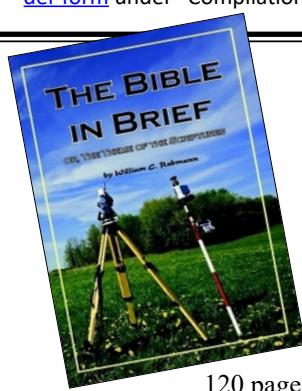

Thus, every word shows that Israelites are a people distinguished from others in their flesh, and having spiritual promises also such as no other nation has. When Paul speaks of his origin and nationality he says,

I am an Israelite, of Abraham’s seed, of Benjamin’s tribe [Romans 11:1].

Israelites and Benjamites cannot be recognized as such in [“the church which is His Body,” Ephesians 1:22-23], which is a spiritual organism.

It is usually taken for granted that Paul is speaking of [“the church which is His Body,” Ephesians 1:22-23], when he speaks of “the Israel of God.” In his comment on Galatians 6:15-16, the saintly [Johann] Bengel says, “The Israel of God are believers of the circumcision or Jewish nation.” No grammarian who believed in inspiration could think differently, because Paul distinguishes two classes by the repetition of the preposition, peace be on them and mercy, and on the Israel of God (Galatians 6:16).

Female Spirit Beings

[To: J.F.:] Yes, indeed, from Zechariah 5:9 we can clearly ascertain that there are not just male spirit beings, but female ones as well! Although the ones mentioned here are wicked ones, if there are evil female beings, of course it stands to reason that there are righteous ones as well. The spirit world is quite populated, and as we demonstrated previously in Earth, the Microcosm of the Heavens [BSN 1024], the Earth was designed in Heaven’s image, and thus, the Earth mirrors Heaven.

Becoming Like the God We Adore

Good Goats: Healing Our Image of God

Israel and the Nations

[To: L.S.:] God called Abraham out from the nations (Hebrew: גּוֹי, goy;² Greek: εθνος, *ethnos*³). From this out-calling God created the nation, Israel. Throughout Israel’s history there were descendants of Abraham who returned to the nations in unbelief. In Acts 28 Israel nationally became lo-ammi – “not My people” – and thus currently, during the Secret Administration, those in the past who could have counted themselves as the physical descendant of Abraham are once again just a part of the nations.

Since Israel’s setting aside, the flesh is no longer of any consideration, and all of the out-called – both those who in any past dispensation would have been (1) the seed of Abraham or (2) a member of the nations – have been made “One New Humanity” (Ephesians 2:15, CV), the “One Body” (Ephesians 2:16; 4:4; 3:15), the “Ecclesia Which is His Body” (Ephesians 1:22-23, CV). Thus, it is, just prior to this glorious revelation of Ephesians, that Paul counted both his former “race” and “tribe” as “refuge” (Philippians 3:4-8, CV).

“In the Above-Heavenlies”

[Edited excerpt:] It has sometimes been claimed that en tois epouraniois (“in the above-heavenlies”) should be read, “among the above heavenly [beings]” because the Greek preposition en is often rendered “among” when several people are involved. We can reply that,

2. The sense of massing (SEC, H1471).

3. A multitude associated or living together ... a multitude of individuals of the same nature or genus (TGL, G1484).

Dispensational Truth or The Place of Israel & the Church Which Is His Body in the Purpose of the Ages

by — Charles H. Welch (1880-1967)

First published in 1912, this was the author’s first full length book. The author exhibits how the Bible reveals the purposes of God, which are seen to have earthly as well as heavenly implications that need to be carefully compared with traditional doctrines.

where a location is concerned, the meaning of en, even in the plural, always remains “in” (cf. Matthew 6:2: 8:32). The preposition thus cannot be used to determine whether the ellipsis must be completed by beings or places. We believe that Ephesians 1:20-21 must be the deciding factor:

... set Him at His own right hand in the above-heavenlies, far above all principalities ...

The expression “in the above-heavenlies” cannot be rendered “among the above-heavenlies” because it is immediately followed by the statement “far above all principalities,” and because these “principalities ...” must be above-heavenly beings according to Ephesians 3:10.

On reading Ephesians 1:20 and 3:10, we find that “the right hand of God” is also a special “place” among the “above heavenlies,” since God and the Lord Jesus Christ are at the same time “in the above-heavenlies” and above the beings who are “in the above-heavenlies.”

“The Mark of the Beast”

[To: G.B.] There is no need to worry about “the Mark of the Beast.” Revelation is a Jewish book. It is written by one of Israel’s Twelve Apostles, and deals with prophetic themes that belong predominately to Israel at the beginning of “the Day of the Lord.” Prophetically, “the Day of Christ” precedes “the Day of the Lord” by some 700 years. Thus, prophetically, NONE of the events of the book of Revelation are near, including “the Mark of the Beast.” At a minimum, they are many centuries away.

We currently live in “the Administration of the Secret” of Ephesians and Colossians where all prophecy, for the time being, is in abeyance. There are NO prophecies being fulfilled today. NONE. Nor have ANY been fulfilled since the setting aside of Israel in Acts 28.

Yes, all of the books of the “New Testament,” outside of Paul’s, are written exclusively to Israel.⁴ Even among the epistles of Paul, those written prior to the close of the period covered by the book of Acts belong to a time when Gentiles were being grafted into Israel. The books written after the Barrier Wall was removed (Philippians, Ephesians, Philemon, and Colossians) are the only truly non-Jewish writings of all of the Greek Scriptures (the so-called “New Testament”), with only Ephesians and Colossians reveal-

Tom L. Ballinger “The Olivet Discourse in Matthew 24 and the Pre-Millennial Kingdom,” [BSN 942 & BSN 943]. WOW. The way that he digs into the meaning of every thought that Scripture is conveying, with such logical interpretation; I wish I could have talked with him. He surpasses eloquence (self-serving) AND intellectualism (haughty) and delivers diligently sought-after, truth-loving logic. Eloquence and intellectualism are subjective – I will cling to our loving Father’s assessment. Ballinger knew that God-given understanding is priceless; you can tell that he pursued it and was abundantly rewarded.

The logic given to the details of the verbiage of the Scripture that this two-part study covers is, in my humble estimation, undeniable; traditional interpretation builds upon only the high points in order to “fit” overarching details into a pre-conceived end (sunteleia). When you consider the finer details with the: Day of Man – Day of Christ – Day of the Lord – Day of God … the details leading to the ends (telos) of each age makes so much more sense. Thank you for this wonderful work. — IN God is rich. He has immeasurable value. Yet, in this phase, in what way is God declared to be rich?

“In mercy”!

This is all “because of His vast love with which He loves us.”

God’s attribute of mercy is rooted in His essence of love. Little wonder then, that He is “rich in mercy”! After all, as we have already seen, He is truly a God Who “delights in mercy” (Micah 7:18).

God loves His creation so much that He takes great pleasure in being “merciful to all.” What kind of God is this Who, in His majesty and glory, high above all heavens, condescends to bestow His rich mercy upon us? How contrary to religious thinking!

In Titus 3:4-5 Paul states that it is “according to His mercy” that God “saves us,” and NOT according to our works or our righteousness.

It has been said that mercy is God not giving us what we do deserve, while grace is God giving us what we do not deserve. Thus, it is that one attribute of God leads us to another. Mercy leads to grace. They are two sides of the same coin.

The LORD is gracious and merciful (Psalm 111:4, ESV).

You are a gracious and merciful God (Nehemiah 9:31, ESV).

God’s mercy is leading all of His creation to the successful operation of His marvelous grace. It is God’s glorious will to save all.

Seven Things I Misunderstood About Prophecy* (An Exposé of Evangelical Prophetic Interpretation)

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

Early on in his life and ministry, what the author knew and taught about the themes found in this book were simply what he had learned since childhood: traditional Evangelical Christian prophetic interpretation. However, in time he would come to see things quite differently. In this work he shares with the reader things that he had misunderstood, and after fifty years of personal Scripture study, what he now understands: realizations that have brought him great peace. Important notice: This work is extracted from the author’s larger work Things I Misunderstood, and can also be found in the compilation, Rightly Dividing Israel’s Prophetic Kingdom.
