The Mosaic Law:

Its Place in the Acts Administration and in the Secret Administration

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law (Acts 21:20).

During the Acts Administration<sup>1</sup> the Barrier Wall<sup>2</sup> between Israel and the nations was firmly in place, and Paul, as a Priest of Israel (Romans 15:16, CV), went to the Gentiles. It is not until we reach the Secret Administration<sup>3</sup> that this wall is down (Ephesians 2:14), along with all of the distinctions that it created. This includes the Mosaic Law, which was a covenant established between God and Israel (cf. Romans 9:4).<sup>4</sup> With Israel now in abeyance (Lo-Am-mi – “not My people”<sup>5</sup>), all things related to them, including their covenant of law, are no longer active.

1. This is God's Administration running throughout the Book of Acts from Pentecost to the pronouncement of judicial blindness on Israel in Acts 28. This is sometimes also referred to as the “Pentecost(al) Administration,” the “Readjustment Administration,” the “Charismatic Dispensation,” the “Transitional Administration,” etc. After the close of the book of Acts, this administration was concluded and replaced by the current Secret Administration (Ephesians 3:9).
2. When God called Abraham, He placed a division between his descendants and all of the rest of humanity. God established a “barrier” between Jew and Gentile, Israel and the Nations. Paul called this division a “middle wall of partition” in Ephesians 2:14 (KJV). The Concordant Version calls it “the central wall of the barrier.” The Dabhar Version renders it “the middle wall of the blockage.”

When reading the Scriptures, it is vitally important that you ask yourself the simple question: Is the middle wall of partition up, or is it down? Recognizing and answering this crucial question is an important key in following Paul's instruction found in II Timothy 2:15 of “rightly dividing” (KJV), “correctly cutting” (CV, 1976 – 6th Edition) or “correctly partitioning” (CV, 1927 – 2nd Edition) the “Word of truth.” It's not until you get to the pinnacle writings of Paul – Ephesians and Colossians – that you see this barrier removed. Read these letters that reveal the Secret Administration, and enjoy God's truth for today. For a further look at the “middle wall of partition,” see:

Are we, then, nullifying<sup>7</sup> law through faith? May it not be coming to that! Nay, we are sustaining<sup>8</sup> law (Romans 3:31, CV).

Yet, in Ephesians, Paul, in distinct contrast, proclaims, Nullifying<sup>9</sup> the law of precepts in decrees, that He should be creating the two, in Himself, into one new humanity, making peace (Ephesians 2:15, CV).

There was no nullifying of the law in Romans, during the Acts Administration, however it is now nullified during the current Secret Administration.

7. "Make void" (KJV), "abolish" (WT), "make useless" (YLT), "overthrow" (GNT), "cancel" (MNT, HCSB), "render invalid" (MCT), "annulled" (GLT), "destroy" (TNT), "cancelled" (CEB), "inactivate" (EB).
8. "Establish" (KJV), "give a firmer footing" (WT), "confirm" (WNT), "are supporting" (GWT), "uphold" (MNT, HCSB), "make it stand" (MCT).
9. "Having abolished" (KJV), "setting aside" (WT), "having done away" (YLT), "abolished" (GNT), "inactivating" (EB), "put an end" (TCNT), "put away" (TNT), "cancelled" (CEB), "ended" (NCV), "rendered inoperative" (WET), "annulled" (DT), "abrogating" (GB) ["abrogating" defined as "to end a law" – Cambridge; "repeal or do away with" – Oxford].

Note that the Concordant Version, in both Romans and Ephesians uses the English word "nullifying." This is because in both verses it is the same Greek word: καταργέω (katargeō) [G2673, SEC]. So, the answer to Paul's earlier question in Romans, "Are we, then, nullifying law?" is now, in Ephesians, an emphatic, "Yes!"

Today, it is not the Mosaic Law that is the basis of how we live. Today we do not now follow the law principle. Quite the contrary, it is God's own Spirit that is in us producing "produce," i.e., fruit –

The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth (Ephesians 5:9).

Paul had previously expressed such divine fruit in a nine-fold way:

Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,<sup>10</sup> meekness, temperance (Galatians 5:22-23, BSV).

One word describes all of this: Grace!

(see MOSAIC LAW, page 7428)

10. "Loyalty" (CPV).

– adult sonship position (Ephesians 1:5).

Harmonizing Romans 11:36 with I Corinthians 8:6

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

Q: How do we harmonize Romans 11:36 with I Corinthians 8:6, as one says all is out of God and the other says all is out of Christ? How do the two verses align? – D.R.

A: The paramount thing that we know from I Corinthians 8:6 is that there is a clear distinction between God (Father) and Jesus (Son):

There is but one God, the Father ... and one Lord Jesus Christ.

So, the only way that “all” can be attributed to both is that One has to be the source of “all,” while the Other must be the channel.

God is plainly the source of “all,” while Christ is the channel. This is what the passage asserts. This distinction is noted by two different Greek prepositions: ἐκ (ek) and διὰ (dia). Paul uses ek in relationship to God, and dia in relationship to Christ.

Ek is defined as “a primary preposition denoting origin” (SEC, G1537), while dia is defined as “a primary preposition denoting the channel” (SEC, G1223). We can see this difference clearly distinguished in English translations. For example, the prepositions “of” and “by” are used in the KJV, while “out of” and “through” are used in the CV.

But to us there is but one God, the Father, OF Whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, BY Whom are all things, and we by Him (KJV).

Nevertheless for us there is one God, the Father, OUT OF Whom all is, and we for Him, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, THROUGH Whom all is, and we through Him (CV).

In this regard, A.E. Knoch (1874-1965) wrote concerning I Corinthians 8:6,

We have here a marvelously exact and concise definition of the relationship which we sustain to God and to the Lord, which, in turn, throws much light on their respective relationship to each other. Briefly put, God is the Source and Object of all; Christ is the Channel of all.<sup>1</sup>

The Creation of Evil, Sin and Satan (A Compilation)

The truth laid forth in this work should help us greatly in our dealings with others, especially those who have failed in some way which may bring dishonor on His Name, or cannot accept His truth, or even oppose it and us, especially mature teachings such as is put forth in the pages of this book. It contains 19 authors, 49 works, spanning 150 years. Authors include: Arthur P. Adams, E.W. Bullinger, Alan Burns, Edward Clayton, John Essex, H.W. Fry, Vladimir Gelesnoff, Norman P. Grubb, Donald G. Hayter, A.E. Knoch, William Mealand, André Piet, Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr., Ray Van Dyke, William H. Walker, and James Webb.

However, Romans 11:36 reveals even a greater truth, for in the most absolute<sup>2</sup> sense “all” is operating “through” God – after all, if “all” is “out of Him,” then even His relative channels of operation are indeed truly His Own operations!

After all, the character of the current Secret Administration is absolute grace, so much so that Paul also calls this the Grace Administration!

Since you surely hear of the Administration of the GRACE OF GOD that is given to me for you (Ephesians 3:2, CV).

What began in the previous administration as “the word of His grace” (Acts 14:3), and the “evangel of grace” (Acts 20:24), so that “grace ... should be reigning” (Romans 5:21), became an entire Administration of Grace; the despotism<sup>11</sup> of grace so elaborate that Paul terms it “the riches of His grace” (Ephesians 1:7) – so much so, that the fallout of “the transcendent riches of His grace” (Ephesians 2:7) will continue to be displayed in us even beyond our present age into the coming ages!

Those of us chosen to be in the One Body have not only been saved by grace, we have been called “in grace.” Notice how the Concordant Version renders Ephesians 2:8:

11. See the important work:

We have been saved “in” a sphere of grace – a complete administration of it! As A.E. Knoch (1874-1965) has written,

Grace is a fundamental characteristic of the present administration of the secret (Ephesians 3:2, 9). It is the favor of the previous transitional era continued and intensified and enriched ... Grace glorious, rich, transcendent, is our portion now (Ephesians 1:6-7; 2:7). ... Grace, undiluted by law, unspoiled by works, unconfined by aught of man, is the fullest, freest outflow of God’s essence, which is love. ... Christendom has hardly heard of the present grace. ... Grace is not the efficient agent (“by”) or the channel (“through”), but the sphere in which God operates in this and the preceding administration.<sup>12</sup> BSN

The Vision of Isaiah: Its Structure and Scope

by — E.W. Bullinger

This study does not approach this prophecy from the standpoint of human agency, or of a literary performance, but from the side of the Divine authorship. The author comes from the stand of one who believes God, and who says “Let God be true, and every man a liar.” He seeks evidence only in Scripture: in facts, and not in human reasoning; and leaves his readers to draw their own conclusions from those facts.

See order form under “Bullinger.”

Judgment and God’s Absolute Sovereignty

[To D.R.:] The real “problem” with divine judgment is our perception of it as “punishment.” It is a Western idea, and in this regard, more specifically that of Western Christianity, to regard judgment as punishment. Divine judgment is not “punishment,” but rather the making of things right. Divine judgment fixes things!<sup>1</sup>

Those who genuinely understand the true nature of divine judgement come to these types of remarkable conclusions:

Judging is that which rights wrongs. – A.E. Knoch (1874-1965)

God’s judgments are corrective; they set matters right. – A.E. Knoch (1874-1965)

God’s judgments are always good and for the benefit of the one judged. – Arthur P. Adams (1847-1920)

Judgment is the purifying and educating office of grace. – Vladimir Gelesnoff (1877-1921)

Judgment is not about destruction, but about setting things right. – William Paul Young

— Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

“The Body” and “The Bride”

[Excerpt:] It is assumed almost universally that the “Church” [Ecclesia] of the present dispensation is at once “the Body of Christ” and “the Bride.” Traditional theology, unscriptural hymnology, amazing disregard for correct interpretation, intolerant zeal for dogmatic human opinions together with careless, defective instruction, have united for generations in perpetuating a phase of teaching possessing no foundation in or authority from Holy Scripture and perpetrating a system that plunges multitudes of believers in dire confusion concerning the plan, purpose and program of God for “the church which is His Body” as distinct from the Divine purpose concerning another out-calling known as “the Bride, the Lamb’s wife.”

[Yet the specific term] “The Bride of Christ” is absolutely unknown to Scripture. Not appearing in Scripture, the term should find no place in the believer’s thought or vocabulary.

The Nature of Human Accounts of History

[To K.M.:] Even if one did not take into consideration the current Secret Administration, where all prophecy is in abeyance, there is no reason for believers to build their doctrine based on human history and chronologies, as prophetic prognostication often does. How much confidence can we really place in human accounts and timetables of history? Are they absolute, immovable facts? How can we be so sure of ancient history, when there is dispute about even modern history? Are there plausible dissenting views of traditional history? Moreover, can we trust these manmade timelines enough to legitimately base the interpretation of Scripture prophecy upon them? Are Divine Scripture and human scholarship worthy of such a marriage?

For example, some scholarship claims mounting evidence of errors and deceptions within the field of history. Some even assert a “calendar inflation” of some 700 “phantom” years during the first millennium A.D. alone.

3. Hadden was a professor at W.B. Riley’s Northwestern Bible School and then at BIOLA (Bible Institute of Los Angeles).

“Robert Hadden [was] a onetime teacher at BIOLA (Bible Institute of Los Angeles), who had been dismissed for teaching an extreme view of dispensationalism called Bullingerism, which posited that Israel was really the Bride of Christ rather than the church, and that only the so-called Prison Epistles of Paul belong to the church. ... His employment at BIOLA came through his earlier association with [T.C.] Harton at the Northwestern Bible Training School of St. Paul, Minnesota. ... After Hadden was dismissed from BIOLA he ... began teaching independent Bible classes throughout Los Angeles. Through this activity he gained a local following ... [and] many people attended Hadden’s classes rather than a local church. .... Hadden maintained cordial but restive relations with the BIOLA community.” – Daniel W. Draney, When Streams Diverge: Studies in Evangelical History and Thought, Wipf and Stock (2008), page 127.

The Chronological Order of Paul’s Epistles

[To C.C.:] Since first realizing the importance of the progressive nature of revelation, especially its impact on Paul’s epistles, there has since been some need to arrange his epistles more accurately in chronological order, to better assist in identifying the progression of the revelation given to him.

Although, for the most part, some books are generally acknowledged to be written earlier, and others were written later, there is no commonly accepted order of their dates.

In my own study over many years, I would find myself simply adhering to the order given by the most trusted teacher that I happened to follow at any certain place in my growth. So, this order was always changing.

Most orders include dates in which the books were written, but to be honest, dating the letters of Paul is not as important as the internal evidence of each book – following the flow of progressive revelation.

What is of greatest importance is to recognize that Paul’s epistles fall into two groups. We may term these two groups in this way:

Those written while the Barrier Wall is up – and those written after the Barrier Wall is down.

Or, another way to say it,

Those written during the Acts Administration, and those written during the Secret Administration.

In his earlier epistles Paul was a priest of God to the Gentiles. During that time the Barrier Wall that distinguished between Jew and Gentile, Israel and the Nations was still erect.

In Paul’s last two epistles (Ephesians and Colossians) the Barrier Wall was down, and all things Jewish were totally removed. If we believe the record of these two epistles themselves, they are the only ones to make the declarations of the Secret Administration, with Colossians closing the “canon” Scripture (Colossians 1:25).

So, based on the internal declarations of the epistles themselves, all of Paul's epistles other than Ephesians and Colossians are in the former class. Furthermore, based on the declarations of Ephesians and Colossians, we are also so bold as to declare that all other Greek Scriptures (i.e., the so-called "New Testament") were also written prior to Ephesians and Colossians, regardless of what tradition and scholarship assert. We believe the Scriptures themselves over the traditions of men (which only "invalidate" God's Word, Matthew 15:6; Mark 7:13).

I Corinthians
II Corinthians
Galatians
Romans
I Timothy
Titus
II Timothy
Philippians
Philemon
Ephesians
Colossians

Therefore, not only are Ephesians and Colossians distinct from Paul's other writings, but they are also the last two epistles written by him, as well as the last two epistles written of all the Greek Scriptures – the very pinnacle of divine revelation – completing God's Word.

— Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

BSN

I continue to read and re-read Paul's epistles, as well as the book of Acts, with the prayer to look beyond all that I have been taught, and all that I have taught, and seek to find the internal evidence of each epistle so as to establish a chronological order. This is my current understanding of their order:

I Thessalonians
II Thessalonians

Note to our readers: This is a complete revision of an earlier order of Paul's epistles provided 10 years ago in Bible Student's Notebook #319. I am in the continual process of documenting internal evidence of Paul's epistles. I welcome your assistance in this work!

The light you have shared from Father's heart has transformed my understanding of His Word and liberated my soul from the "classical guilt" of the "standard" dispensational Acts 2 & Mid-Acts religious programing that I spent years studying (although it was probably a necessary step to get me to where I now am). – SD

I am in agreement with dispensational distinction that covers the entire Acts of the Apostles period. It just makes sense. Thanks for presenting this point of view from the voice of such dedicated and sincere saints of the Most High.
