Key Points:

The study of Scripture should focus on understanding God's revealed Will rather than seeking personal goals during times of calamity. Having a solid understanding of God's purpose before facing life's challenges is highly beneficial.....8251
When sincerely seeking God, His Word opens our eyes and holds immense power, offering personal growth and insight.....8253
The current prolonged period of silence and absence of signs does not align with the scriptural revelation of the future transformative and undeniable demonstration of the Kingdom of God on Earth. Mistakenly overlooking this interruption in God's silence often leads to misguided attempts to force events that are not in accordance with His will.....8254
The wisdom of God in Christ, the power of God in Christ, and the grace of God in Christ to reach throughout all of creation, including the heavenly places, is now the revealed secret that is the fulfillment of the Word of God.....8254

The misrepresentation of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth as still being at hand serves as a comforting response to God's ongoing silence, but fosters false doctrines of performance instead of embracing the peace and confidence that comes from understanding our true identity in Christ. ....8255
As a member of Christ's One Body, you possess the seal of God and are destined to reign with Him, surpassing all authorities. You do not represent the earthly Kingdom reserved for God's true Israel, as those events are yet to come according to Hebrews. ....8258

INTRODUCTION

It is of upmost importance to understand how to approach God's Word. We, in our present state of mortal weakness, learn on a gradual basis. We gain over a period of a lifetime as we continue to consider Scripture with one specific goal in mind. That goal is simply to desire to know God. To diligently seek after Him and an understanding of His Will. Most often people approach the Bible with some other purpose. In times of trouble some will seek an immediate answer, some will consider Scripture as a source of mystical power to control events, still others want to harness its authority and dictate their personal perception of godliness. Notice that a pattern immediately presents itself in these study approaches where the creatures' personal desire is the issue, instead of the desire to diligently know more of the Creator (Romans 1:24-25; Hebrews 11:16).

Scripture affords. When we are desperate it is indeed the source of God's loving comfort, while understanding the power of the victorious show of Christ at Calvary provides context to all aspects of life. To be given eyes that understand the Will of God, through a grasp of the completed Word, instills bold confidence that the heirs with Christ use to minister with loving wisdom (Ephesians 3:14-19).

Instead of the study of Scripture being done in order to obtain a self-prescribed goal in times of calamity, our desire is to think daily of our Father's goal: His revealed Will for creation, for the ages, for this age and the called today, and therefore for us. It is great gain when we already have a sound understanding in place before facing the experiences of life's many calamities (Ephesians 6:14-19).

This approach will inspire the godly believer to emerge from each challenging experience even more confident in the peace of God. The severe challenges of our current mortal state press us forward to better rest in the peace and comfort of our loving heavenly Father by design. He considers our current weakness as an opportunity to this end, we should too (Philippians 3:7-14).

The goal of our heart becomes known as we study Scripture, its intention is made known by expressed conclusions. The greater the understanding that God gives to us the more obvious the plight of the blind becomes. With gratitude for the precious gift of inclusion at the highest level in His Master Plan we walk on to serve Him in proper worship (Ephesians 1:7-2:10).

SCRIPTURE STUDY

God's Word is alive. It discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart (Hebrews 4:12, Hebrews 11:6).

God's Word does not change. It always works hand in hand with His Will which makes it important to be able to understand the context of each chapter, verse and word of Scripture. Literal translations allow for avoidance of the limited understanding, and resultant agenda, of interpretive translators. As we have already seen, it is God Who opens eyes as the Word is considered. God's Word is powerful and alive. You will gain from it if you are sincerely seeking after Him.

Let's first recognize the context of these passages in Hebrews. This book is written to the nation of Israel. Therefore, it contains the parameters imposed by the "if/then" demonstration that is inherent with Israel's covenant relationship with Jehovah. Hebrews is a "Kingdom at hand having been suspended" book. It is an explanation of how the death, burial and resurrection of Christ has paved the way for a new, fully-sufficient-sacrifice covenant that is to be the basis of the culmination of Israel's prophetic program (Hebrews 7:19-28).

Hebrews further explains the literal reality of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth being offered and rejected. The first opportunity of manifesting this Kingdom was through the called-out flock of a single Jewish generation (I Peter 2:9-10). Within this same single generation wickedness was allowed to prevail, and the wicked crucified their prophesied Messiah (Acts 2:22-24). The final suspension/change to their covenant relationship, brought about by Israel's rejection of their Messiah, is documented at the close of the book of Acts. There God declares that, as a result of their indifference, they are "no longer My people" (Acts 28:28).

The book of Acts is not doctrine for a new beginning as some teach. It is the historical record of the wickedness of one Jewish generation and the Acts of those who were faithful to Christ during His earthly ministry. Hebrews picks up where Acts ends as it is written to inform and encourage those who faithfully followed Christ during His earthly ministry, but witnessed the Kingdom offer withdrawn. It explains how/why those of God's true Israel will, in the future, be involved in the dramatic culmination of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. It speaks to those who literally witnessed the inception of the dynamic Pentecostal events, and then witnessed the Kingdom saturation of the world cease. Also, the book of Hebrews will be current information for future Jewish new covenant saints who will literally experience the glorious fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

That future Kingdom will be made known in an irrefutable, world-shattering exhibition that will not be able to be denied by any creature on Earth or in

Religious Traditions and Creeds

A Compilation

The great enemy of truth is religious traditions and creeds: "Making the Word of God of none effect through your tradition" (Mark 7:13). This exposé compilation of 31 chapters, from 21 authors, spans 130 years.

Heaven. As is often assumed today, the silence of God during His ushering in of His Kingdom on Earth does not fit with Scripture. It is not the work of the current Body, of which Christ is Head, to attempt to exhibit the supernatural signs that were common during the four gospels and the book of Acts Kingdom offer.

The current two thousand plus years of silent, signless existence in no way matches Scripture's revelation of how the Kingdom of God on Earth will transform everything with a vivid and irrefutable demonstration. It will be similar to a Pentecostal-like exhibit that begins in Jerusalem, moves to Judea, out to Samaria, and then literally saturates the entire globe. Failing to recognize this interruption of silence from God continues to lead to many attempts to force something to happen that simply is not His Will for now. The centuries of proclaiming something to happen that is not at all what God is doing today has gone from impactful to shamefully foolish.

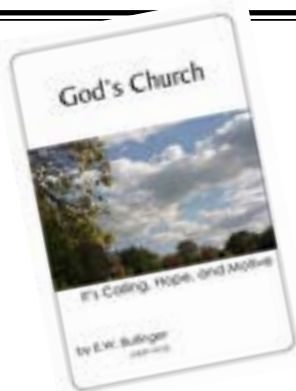

You have a problem if you do not have an answer for the silence of God today. The record in the four Gospels, as well as the Acts of the Apostles, is far from a "God-being-silent" period of time. Quite the opposite. The whole of Christ's ministry was openly demonstrating His authenticity with signs and wonders. It will be even more demonstrative when He returns to Earth the second time. At that time He will not be born in a modest stable, humbly enter Jerusalem on the back of a donkey, or be subject to false accusation. He will return in world-shattering power. The error of missing the point of the books of Acts and Hebrews is nothing less than full-knowledge robbing deception.

Understanding that instead of the first offer of the Kingdom on the Earth being a bitter failure, we now know that the interruption of these events was all according to God's sovereign Will. Between where Acts concludes and Hebrews picks back up, Father God reveals the completing information having to do with His secret Heavenly purpose.

Paul pens Ephesians and Colossians through the inspiration of God's Spirit. With this completing revelation he declares how the heavenly places will be filled by a never previously prophesied, secretly predestined, church.<sup>1</sup> Paul fully declares the cross-work of Christ as the open show of victorious power enabling the all-encompassing salvation of all things.

This finished accomplishment of the Lord Jesus Christ was always in God's plan. It was not an afterthought or a scramble to correct unforeseen sinful events. Calvary was always the plan to be the basis to empower the all-encompassing grace that will systematically implement the conciliation of all things. The open show of the cross<sup>2</sup> of Christ always was the triumphant planned exhibition of good overcoming evil (Hebrews 10:4-13). The wisdom of God in Christ,

1. [Editor:] The Greek word often translated as "church" in most English versions is ἐκκλησία (ekklēsia, or ecclesia). The word is a compound word meaning "called-out" (ek = "out"; kaleō = "called"). The ecclesia is God's "called-out" ones. The ecclesia is not a building or denomination; not a meeting, or doctrinal creed; it is not somewhere we go, or something we do, it is who we as believers are. For more information see:

God's Church Its Calling, Hope and Motive

the power of God in Christ, and the grace of God in Christ to reach throughout all of creation, including the heavenly places, is now the revealed secret that is the fulfillment of the Word of God (Colossians 1:25).

Similarly, Israel's blindness and the silence of God were always in His plan in order to usher in the present secret economy. A never-before revealed called-out group, destined to dwell as Heaven's citizenry, chosen before the foundation of the world to be joint-heirs with Christ, was the final revelation needed to complete the Word of God. Not until the books of Ephesians and Colossians can you understand the all-encompassing reach of Calvary to the highest Heavens, let alone our unique and glorious calling as the Body of our Head, the resurrected Lord Jesus Christ. To claim Scripture having to do with the Kingdom on Earth as in effect today leads to a failure to recognize our high and glorious destiny in Heaven (Colossians 3:2; Philippians 3:20).

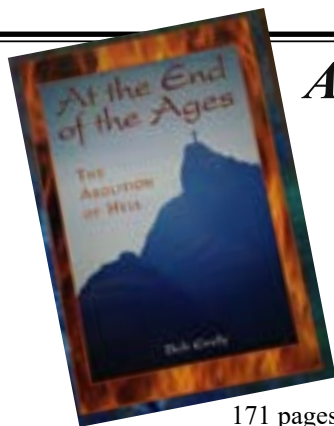

As mentioned, the book of Hebrews further explains the New Covenant that is based in the once-and-for-all sacrifice of Christ, as opposed to the never-ending requirements of the Law. This New Covenant will be the basis for Israel's relationship with God when they once again become the agency through which the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth is established and executed. Instead of being a demonstration of defeat, we now know that Calvary established God's conciliated Heaven and Earth wherein He will be "All in all" (I Corinthians 15:28). When Christ bursts back on the scene to install the geo-political Kingdom of Heaven on Earth, it will be overwhelmingly undeniable. Failing to understand these events leads to much confusion.

The hysteria created by not recognizing the change in plan from earthly to heavenly representatives has so long played out that each successive generation grows weary embracing unseen promises that scripturally are to be tangible. Traditional misrepresentation of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth as still being at hand today has become the answer to placate the masses during God's current ongoing silence. The deceitful handling of God's Word leads to false doctrines of performance, instead of peace and confidence from knowing the full extent of our identity in Christ. The intention of the heart to sustain tradition over discovery of God's Will is obvious to those whose eyes have been opened (Ephesians 1:15-23).

So long has God been silent during our current time of His grace being extended to all of creation, that those who fail to recognize prophecy's interruption assume that God is being silent during the fulfilling of the prophesied Kingdom. The Kingdom is not at hand today. God is forming the One Body whose destiny is joint-heirship with Christ (Ephesians 3:6) far above all principalities in the highest Heaven (1:21-23). The church, which is His Body, is currently the open show of God's wisdom and grace on display to all of creation. This open show on display is a tremendous opportunity for the called today. This new and unique opportunity is designed to play out against the backdrop of God's silence in this evil day (6:13).

At the End of the Ages: The Abolition of Hell

by — Bob Evelyn

Is hell forever? Most say that the righteous go to heaven, and the wicked to hell, forever! Is this what the Bible teaches?

This book presents evidence that the Bible, in the original languages, reveals that, one day, ALL mankind will be saved. Through time our Bible translations have become biased through the official teachings of "The Church." The author argues that teaching about an eternal hell slanders God, and it prevents many from having faith because the arguments in support of an eternal torment are illogical.

Would a God of love keep many souls alive forever just to torment them because they failed to "accept Jesus Christ" in this lifetime? The author shows that the Bible does not teach this. The purpose of "the eons" (i.e., "the ages," often mistranslated "eternity") is to bring ALL mankind to the point where every knee bows before Him. This work is written with the average reader in mind.

by — Thomas Whittemore (1800-1861)

Modern History of Universalism was among Whittemore’s most important works. It was designed to be the companion work to the first edition which was published in 1830. It deals with Universalist developments from the Protestant Reformation in Europe and then in America.

Over the next thirty years Whittemore greatly expanded this history. In 1860 he published the first of what was to be a two-volume set. This first volume deals with European developments from the time of the Reformation. A second volume was to deal with American developments. He died a year later leaving the second volume unfinished. The 1830 single-volume edition remains the only current source of his work extending into the American history of Universalism.

Volume 1 of the 1860 edition is a tremendous expansion of the European content contained in the 1830 edition. An avid student of Universalist history would require both the 1830 and 1860 editions.

Our destiny, as the completing revelation of His Word, is the reason for the interruption found between the books of Acts and Hebrews. God set the earthly kingdom program aside in order to provide the final piece of information about His Will for the heavenly places. We have a heavenly destiny as joint-heirs with Christ. We are on display as those who were chosen before the foundation of the world, predestined to be without blame and spotless by the loving wisdom and grace of Almighty God (Ephesians 1:3-6).

You, as a member of Christ's One Body, having the seal of God within you (Ephesians 1:7-14), are destined to reign with Him far above all authorities (Ephesians 1:15-23). You are not a representative of the earthly Kingdom that will be vested in God's true Israel. Those coming events are future according to Hebrews. The establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven on the Earth will certainly NOT be a silent and easily ignored event; it will be an absolute, undeniable and Earth-changing drama on full display.

When Christ bursts back on the scene, all of creation will be aware, as His presence in the Heavens will be evidence that every creature everywhere will be keenly aware of. When Christ makes His glorious appearance, making His authority and preeminence known throughout Heaven, we as Christ's Body will be revealed with Him when He appears (Colossians 3:1-4). At that time the prayer for His will to be done "in Earth as it is in Heaven" will once again become the desire of the chosen dwelling on Earth. The Kingdom of Heaven will eventually be brought down to Earth with Christ sitting on David's throne for one thousand years. Stop and realize that these events, and the ongoing infusion of the preeminence of Christ, will be a "no doubt about it" cosmic-shattering reality.

Until then we rest on the evidence and authority of God's Word, which is powerful and does indeed reveal the intention of the heart of those who embrace it. Only God will illuminate His written wisdom to each one in their own time (I Corinthians 15:19-26).
